

Sidney Abrams, SPHR, SHRM-SCP, sHRBP
Managing Director, Nonprofit HR

Sidney Abrams leads Nonprofit HR's Consulting Practice with nearly 25 years of human resources leadership experience. In his role as Managing Director, Sidney oversees all HR client engagements including HR projects and outsourcing. Nonprofit HR's consulting team has grown from 4 to 23 under Sidney's leadership over the past 9 years he's been with the firm.

He has successfully completed many complex engagements including multi-state compliance audits, HRIS implementations and HR effectiveness assessments. The firm's fastest growing division, virtual outsourcing, designed for small nonprofits, boasts double and triple-digit annual growth. The firm views this practice area, the brain child of a Nonprofit HR employee, as a model for future new business development.

Sidney is highly versed in human resource strategy and implementation, with recognized expertise in the areas of audit/compliance, analysis and improvement and HRIS/HR technology.

Prior to his time with Nonprofit HR, Sidney spent 6 years in family-run for-profit businesses before starting his career in nonprofits in 2000. He spent 2 years with a technology association then 6 years at a national Jewish youth movement.

Sidney graduated from the University of Maryland with a BS in Human Resource Management and he is a proud Terp alum to this day. He earned professional certifications from HRCI, SHRM and HCI.
