

Tara Pellet
Assistant Vice President at AHT Insurance

As Assistant Vice President, Tara helps customers overcome the challenges they face when designing and administering benefit programs. Tara is a hands-on leader who focuses on perfecting each transaction for optimal efficiency—which reduces the overall spend for each AHT customer.

Over the past decade her career has been focused on assisting clients to find innovative ways to not only attract but to also retain their top tier talent. Tara educates, empowers and enables her clients by providing detailed insight on how to select products, and implement programs, geared towards intelligently improving the company's culture.

Tara holds a degree in Psychology from the University of Delaware, Master of Education from Cabrini College and a Masters in Human Science from Hood College. She has also completed the SHRM certification SHRM-CP. Her dedication to the HR profession has led her to serve on the board of 3 SHRM chapters.
